

Remembering a Sudanese Hero: Dr. John Garang

The late Dr. John Garang is probably the greatest Sudanese leader in history. Dr. Garang had a different view of what the problems of Sudan really were and a clear vision/solution to these problems.

His death, which occurred under suspicious circumstances three years ago (30 July), has deprived Sudan of a visionary leader.

To all Sudanese, American Friends, Sponsors and Volunteers.

The Sudanese Youth in Virginia request the honor of your presence at Memorial Service for remembering our Great Hero and Visionary Leader, Dr. John Garang de Mabior.

Please join us and learn more about the current issues affecting Sudan and its future. Participating in the service will be officials from the Government of Southern Sudan. Also participating will be officials representing forces from Sudan's other marginalized regions of Nuba Mountains and Darfur.

The Sudanese Youth in Virginia will be hosting the Memorial Service of Doctor John Garang de Mabior on Saturday August 2nd, 2008 at 1:00pm

The venue will be in Newport News, Virginia. Below is the address.
